Plan ahead and prepare

- Know the regulations and special concerns for the area you'll visit.
- Visit the backcountry in small groups.
- Avoid popular areas during times of high use.
- Choose equipment and clothing in subdued colors.
- Repurpose food into reusable containers.

Camp and Travel on Durable Surfaces

- Stay on designated trails. Walk single file in the middle of the path.
- Do not shortcut switchbacks.
- When traveling cross-country, choose the most durable surfaces available: rock, gravel, dry grass or snow.
- Use a map and compass to eliminate the need for rock cairns, tree scars, and ribbons.
- Step to the downhill side of the trail and talk softly when encountering pack stock.

AT CAMP

- Choose an established, legal site that will not be damaged by your stay.
- Restrict activities to the area where vegetation is compacted or absent.
- Keep pollutants out of water sources by camping AT LEAST 200 feet (70 adult steps) from lakes and streams.

Pack it in, Pack it out

- Pack everything that you bring into wild country back out with you.
- Protect wildlife and your food by storing rations securely.
- Pick up all spoiled foods.

Properly Dispose of What You Can't Pack Out

- Deposit human waste in catholes dug 6-8 inches deep at least 200 feet from water, camp or trails. Cover and disguise the catholes when finished.
- Use toilet paper or wipes sparingly. Pack them out in plastic bags.
- To wash yourself or your dishes, carry water 200 feet away from streams or lakes, and use small amounts of biodegradable soap. Scatter dish water after REMOVING ALL food particles.
- Inspect your campsite for trash and evidence of your stay. Pack out all trash: YOURS AND OTHERS.

LEAVE WHAT YOU FIND

- Treat our natural heritage with respect. Leave plants, rocks, and historical artifacts as you find them.
- Good campsites are found, not made. Altering a site should not be necessary.
- Let nature's sounds prevail. Keep loud voices and noises to a minimum.
- Control pets at all times. Remove dog feces from trails or camping areas.
- Do not build structures or furniture or dig trenches.
- Control pets at all times. Remove dog feces from trails or camping areas.

MINIMIZE USE AND IMPACT OF FIRES

- Composites can cause lasting impacts to the backcountry. ALWAYS carry a lightweight stove for cooking. Enjoy a candle lantern instead of a fire.
- Where fires are permitted, use established fire rings, fire pans, or mound fires. Do not scar large rocks or overhangs.
- Gather sticks, no larger than an adult wrist FROM THE GROUND.
- Do NOT snap branches off live, dead, or downed trees.
- Put out campfires completely.
- Remove ALL unburned trash from fire ring, and scatter the coal ashes over a large area well away from camp.
